

Every public school classroom should be a safe place for students to express their faith.

As a church, let's make sure our children experience that.

Since 1993, the President proclaims January 16th as Religious Freedom Day. We have an opportunity to promote freedom of religious expression in our schools this week. Give the enclosed pamphlet to a public school student, teacher, or parent you know. Or, keep it for your reference and pick up more in the church foyer.

Together, let's make a difference in our community during this school week.
